

Doing Business with Japan

May 13, 2014

The Honorable Nozomu Takaoka
Consul General of Japan in Houston

As the world's 3rd largest economy, Japan offers tremendous potential for Houston-based companies looking to go global. Japan currently ranks as Houston's 16th largest international trading partner.

Join the Greater Houston Partnership on May 13 for the Coffee with the Consuls: Doing Business with Japan. The Honorable Nozomu Takaoka, Consul General of Japan in Houston, will be the featured speaker and will be accompanied by an expert panel including:

- Takashi Nakamizo, CEO of the Japan External Trade Organization (JETRO) in Houston
- Tatsuo Doko, President and CEO of Toshiba International Corporation
- James Tsai, Assistant Marketing Manager in the Petrochemicals Department of Mitsui & Co. (U.S.A.), Inc.

Russ Capper, host of The BusinessMakers Radio Show, will moderate the panel discussion on how to access the Japanese market.

This program is an exclusive opportunity to expand your professional horizons. Come enjoy a Japanese-inspired breakfast and see what opportunities exist with this important international partner.

When: Tuesday, May 13, 2014 | Breakfast from 8 a.m. | Program: 8:30 to 10 a.m.

Where: GHP Board Room | 1200 Smith Street, 7th floor, Houston, TX 77002
Visitor Parking: Allen Center | 300 Clay Street, Houston, TX 77002

Cost: Member: $35 | Nonmember: $45

Have Questions?: Contact Rozenn Courtois at rcourtois@houston.org or 713-844-3682.

Series Sponsor:

Moderator:

