

Curriculum Vitae: Zentaro NAGANUMA

Date of Birth: 16 November 1962

Education: Bachelor of Waseda University (English Philology), March 1986

Employment record:

April 1986	Joined the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Japan (MOFA)
April 1987	Embassy of Japan in Bulgaria
August 1992	International Agreements Division, MOFA
August 1995	Eastern Europe Division, MOFA
October 1998	Permanent Mission of Japan to the International Organizations in Vienna
October 2001	Joined the CTBTO (Comprehensive Nuclear-Test-Ban Treaty Organization) Preparatory Commission Secretary of the CTBTO Preparatory Commission (Served as Assistant to the Executive Secretary and the Chairperson of the Preparatory Commission)
October 2004	Returned to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Japan Deputy Director, Second Intelligence and Analysis Service, MOFA
August 2006	Principal Deputy Director, International Nuclear Energy Cooperation Division, MOFA
November 2010	Negotiator, International Nuclear Energy Cooperation Division, MOFA
June 2013	Director for Export Control Cooperation, MOFA (Served as Head of the Japanese delegation to the NSG (Nuclear Suppliers Group), MTCR (Missile Technology Control Regime), AG (Australia Group) and WA (Wassenaar Arrangement).)
January 2016	Counsel for Treaties Negotiation, MOFA (Served as Head of the Japanese delegation negotiating the BBNJ (marine biological diversity beyond areas of national jurisdiction) Agreement.)
May 2018	Director, International Judicial Proceedings Division, MOFA
April 2024	Consul-General of Japan in Houston